

Some places to consider if you are going to stick around Tucson a day or two:

Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum
<https://www.desertmuseum.org/>

Desert Botanical Garden
<https://www.dbg.org/>

Pima Air and Space Museum
<http://www.pimaair.org/404>

Old Tucson
<http://oldtucson.com/>

Colossal Cave
<http://colossalcave.com/>

Tombstone, Arizona (historic western town about an hour southeast of Tucson)
<http://www.tombstoneweb.com/>

Bisbee, Arizona (old mining town about 90 miles southeast of Tucson, 20 mins from Tombstone)
<http://www.discoverbisbee.com/>

Hiking or cycling destinations

Mt. Lemon
<http://www.go-arizona.com/Mt-Lemmon-Scenic-Byway/>

Sabino Canyon (limited days to cycle)
<http://www.sabinocanyon.com/>

Catalina State Park
<http://www.desertusa.com/azcatalina/azcatalina.html>

Madera Canyon
<http://www.friendsofmaderacanyon.org/>

If you have more than a day or two... you must consider

Sedona, Arizona (230 miles north of Tucson)
<http://visitsedona.com/>

And of course!

Grand Canyon, Arizona (340 miles north of Tucson)
<http://www.nps.gov/grca/index.htm>