

EMERGENCY MEDICINE
SELECTIVE ROTATION

Selective Title:           Emergency Medicine Medical Imaging

Brief Description:       Introduction to medical imaging for emergency medicine.

UA DEM Faculty Director: Dorothy Gilbertson

Contact Phone/email: (520) 626-1961 / dgilbertson@radiology.arizona.edu

Educational/Clinical Site Director: Janet Black, Residency Program Manager
(if different than above)

Contact Phone/email: (520) 626-7402 / janetb@radiology.arizona.edu

Educational or Clinical Site:  BUMC – Tucson Campus    BUMC – South Campus
 Other:

Durations available:            2 weeks    4 weeks    Other:

Accepts visiting residents:    Yes            No

Affiliation Agreement completed (non-Banner sites only):    Yes            No

Educational Goals & Objectives:

1. Describe indications for and limitations of radiologic procedures ordered in an emergency clinical setting.
2. Understand basic anatomy required for interpretation of such procedures.
3. Recognize the most common abnormalities identified on such procedures.

Resident Responsibilities:

1. Attend all radiology conferences (M-F 7:30am – 8:30am, M-F noon – 1pm).
2. Choose a Service for which you will assist for 2 weeks (Neuro, Body CT and MRI, US, MSK, Chest, or Peds).
3. Present one 10-15 minute PowerPoint "ED/Rads" conference to the section with whom you are rotating.

Assessment method for performance of stated objectives?

1. Written evaluation form.